on

the SUPREMACY of CHRIST

Thomas R. Schreiner is the esteemed James Buchanan Harrison Professor of New Testament Interpretation and Biblical Theology and the Associate Dean of the School of Theology at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. Dr. Schreiner has also taught New Testament at Azusa Pacific University and Bethel Theological Seminary. He received a B.S. from Western Oregon University, an M.Div. and Th.M. from Western Conservative Baptist Seminary, and a Ph.D. in New Testament from Fuller Theological Seminary. An expert in the study of Paul's letters in the New Testament, Dr. Schreiner has contributed significantly to biblical scholarship through his numerous books. These include his commentary on Romans, insights into the interpretation of Paul's letters, discussions on Pauline theology of law, biblical theology of perseverance, contemporary perspectives on grace and divine election, and a unique take on Paul's significance in Christian theology. He is also one of the pastors of Clifton Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky. He is married to Diane and they have four children.

April

27th & 28th

Central Baptist Church will be hosting Dr. Schreiner for a two-day event with multiple opportunities on Saturday and Sunday to learn about Biblical covenants in the Old and New Testaments, and how Christ's supremacy is shown through both.
